

[OUEC Wk 8]: End of term drinks

Thu 2.3.23 20:31

To: ouec@maillist.ox.ac.uk <ouec@maillist.ox.ac.uk>

Evening to you all on the Club mailing list,

Two notices from me this week. Firstly, I am sorry to say that Sophy Roberts, one of the pre-eminent travel writers of modern times, has had to cancel her talk for Wk 8. I am arranging for her to speak in Trinity, so we shall not miss out on the opportunity to hear her stories. Instead, we shall end the term with a social evening in the Lamb and Flag pub, starting at 20:00 on Tuesday, March 7th.

Secondly, following the excellent filmmaking workshop provided by Ben Cook last weekend, Thomas Stone, one of our Speaker Secretaries, has created a Microsoft Teams group that will be a space in which people can share ideas, and ask question of Ben. If you want to join the group, email Thomas Stone (thomas.stone@bnc.ox.ac.uk).

Onwards,

James
