Oxford University Exploration Club Week 6

Arian Garside

Conservation During Civil War

Tues 15/11/22, 19:30

Adrian will talk about his experience navigating the forests of western South Sudan: a pristine wilderness comprising the Nile watershed that connects biomes of east and central Africa. His talk will emphasize the relationships he built with forest communities and rangers amidst the recent civil war.

LOCATION: Main Lecture Theater, Oxford University Centre for the Environment Building.

The First Tome in Our Library

Last week, several members went to hear Mensun Bound discuss his expedition to locate Shackleton's Endurance. Dr. Bound is not only an accomplished maritime archaeologist, but an alumni of the Exploration Club. In fact, his first grant was the very grant that many of you are applying for this week!

Dr. Bound was kind enough to sign a copy of his book, The Ship Beneath the Ice, which will serve as the first book in our newly created (and slowly growing) library. Details, including what's in it and where to find it, are still being worked out. However, we hope to have a stable source of inspiration and research available for club members.

OUEC Platforms

Finally, please find all of our social media platforms and website below. This is the most up-to-date listing.

Many thanks to all of the members, new and old. We look forward to seeing you next Tuesday!
